Spc.

James L. Beckstrand

U.S. Army

Age: 27

Hometown:
Escondido, California

Gave his life on:
April 29, 2004

Killed in Baghdad. Jim was outgoing, smart, and self-confident. He always showed his love with little gestures that meant more than anything. He loved his job, his friends and family. He loved the ocean since he was a little boy. "I couldn't be prouder to serve my country and fight for American values of Freedom, Independence and Democracy," he wrote.
