

American Hero

Gunnery Sgt.
Jeffrey E. Bohr
U.S. Marine Corps

Age: 39
Hometown:
Ossian, Iowa
Gave his life on:
April 10, 2003

As the oldest of five brothers, he carried his leadership role into the Corps when it came to looking after his charges. A gruff exterior ... perhaps. He was hard as nails and one tough cookie but he had a heart of gold and was full of love and wisdom that he wanted to share. He truly exemplified what makes great Marines and warriors.

A gift of:
The American Legion Post 365

