

American Hero

Private First Class

Oscar Sanchez

U.S. Army

Age: 19

Hometown:
Modesto, California

Gave his life on:
December 29, 2004

An explosive-laden truck tried to infiltrate the compound. Oscar stood up from behind the barrier, firing his weapon until he blew up the bomber, saving 43 of his fellow soldiers in the base. Oscar loved basketball, skateboarding and laughing. He believed in the "American Dream" (Home, Children and Freedom). An angel named "Oscar" is watching over all.

A gift of:

